In the event of any such deduction or withholding the sum payable by the Counterparty in respect of which such deduction or withholding is required to be made shall be increased to the extent necessary to ensure that after the making of such deduction or withholding the Bank or as the case may be another Participating NCB or Eligible Counterparty receives and retains (free from any liability in respect of such deduction or withholding) a net sum equal to the amount which it would have received and so retained if no such deduction or withholding had been made.

- (h) generally to carry out, or cause or authorise to be carried out, any transaction, scheme or arrangement whatsoever, whether similar or not to any of the foregoing, in relation to the Charged Property which it may consider expedient as effectually as if it were solely and absolutely entitled to the Charged Property;
- (i) in connection with the exercise of any of its powers, to execute or do, or cause or authorise to be executed or done, on behalf of or in the name of the Counterparty or otherwise, as it may think fit, all documents, acts or things in relation to the Charged Property which it may consider appropriate; and
- (j) to pay and discharge out of the profits and income of the Charged Property and the moneys to be made by it in carrying on any such business as aforesaid the expenses incurred in the exercise of any of the powers conferred by this Clause 11.2 or otherwise in respect of the Charged Property and all outgoings which it shall think fit to pay.

11.3. The notification requirement contained in section 103(2) of the Conveyancing Act shall not apply to this Deed of Charge.

11.4. The Bank shall be entitled to rely on the opinion or advice of any professional or financial or other advisers selected by it which is given in connection with this Deed and shall not be liable to the Counterparty for any of the consequences of such reliance or for relying on any communication or document believed by it to be genuine and correct and to have been communicated or signed by the person by whom it purports to be communicated or signed.

- 11.5. The Bank shall (save as expressly otherwise provided herein) as regards all rights, powers, authorities and discretions vested in it by this Deed, or by operation of law, have complete discretion as to the exercise or non-exercise thereof.
- 11.6. Any consent given by the Bank for the purposes of this Deed may be given on such terms and subject to such conditions (if any) as the Bank thinks fit and, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein may be given retrospectively.
- 11.7. The Bank shall not be under any obligation to effect or to require any other person to maintain insurance in respect of any of the Charged Property. If the Bank in its absolute discretion effects insurance in respect of the Charged Property it shall not be subject to the requirements contained in section 110(2) of the Conveyancing Act.

12. Receiver

- 12.1. At any time on or after the Enforcement Date the Bank may appoint such person or persons as it thinks fit to be receiver or receivers (to act jointly or severally) of the Charged Property.
- 12.2. The restrictions contained in section 108(1) of the Conveyancing Act shall not apply to this Deed of Charge.
- 12.3. The Bank may remove the Receiver appointed by it whether or not appointing another in his place, and the Bank may also appoint another receiver if the Receiver resigns.
- 12.4. The exclusion of any part of the Charged Property from the appointment of the Receiver shall not preclude the Bank from subsequently extending his appointment (or that of the Receiver replacing him) to that part.
- 12.5. The Receiver shall, so far as the law permits, be the agent of the Counterparty and the Counterparty shall be solely responsible for his acts and defaults and liable on any contracts or engagements made or entered into by him; and in no circumstances whatsoever shall the Bank be in any way responsible for any misconduct, negligence or default of his.
- 12.6. The remuneration of the Receiver may be fixed by the Bank (and may be or include a commission calculated by reference to the gross amount of all money received or otherwise) and section 108(7) of the Conveyancing Act shall not apply to the commission and/or remuneration of a receiver appointed pursuant to this Deed of Charge, but such remuneration shall be payable by the Counterparty alone. Without prejudice to the foregoing, the Bank may, but shall not be obliged to, pay such remuneration or any part thereof. The Counterparty agrees that it will pay to the Bank an amount equal to any such payment made by it, together with the Bank's cost of funding such payment until such payment by the Counterparty, which payment by the Counterparty shall, for the avoidance of doubt, form part of the Secured Obligations.

- 12.7. The Receiver may be invested by the Bank with such of the powers, authorities and discretions exercisable by the Bank under this Deed as the Bank may think fit.
- 12.8. The Receiver shall in the exercise of his powers, authorities and discretions conform to any lawful regulations and directions from time to time made and given by the Bank.
- 12.9. The Bank may from time to time and at any time require any such Receiver to give security for the due performance of his duties as such Receiver and may fix the nature and amount of the security to be so given but the Bank shall not be bound in any case to require any such security.
- 12.10. Save so far as otherwise directed by the Bank all moneys from time to time received by such Receiver shall be paid over to the Bank to be held by it upon the terms and subject to the provisions of Clause 6.1.
- 12.11. The Bank may pay over to such Receiver any moneys constituting part of the Charged Property to the intent that the same may be applied for the purposes of this Deed by such Receiver and the Bank may from time to time determine what funds the Receiver shall be at liberty to keep in hand with a view to the performance of his duties as such Receiver.

13. Protection of Third Parties

- 13.1. The statutory powers of sale and of appointing a receiver which are conferred upon the Bank as varied and extended by this Deed and all other powers shall in favour of any purchaser be deemed to arise and be exercisable immediately after the execution of this Deed.
- 13.2. No purchaser from, or other person dealing with, the Bank and/or the Receiver shall be concerned to enquire whether any of the powers which they have exercised or purported to exercise has arisen or become exercisable, or whether the Secured Obligations remain outstanding or whether any event has happened to authorise the Receiver to act or as to the propriety or validity of the exercise or purported exercise of any such power; and the title and position of a purchaser or such person shall not be impeachable by reference to any of those matters.
- 13.3. The receipt of the Bank or the Receiver shall be an absolute and conclusive discharge to a purchaser or such person and shall relieve him of any obligation to see to the application of any moneys paid to or by the direction of the Bank or the Receiver.

14. Protection of the Bank and Receiver

- 14.1. Neither the Bank nor any Receiver shall be liable in respect of any loss or damage which arises out of the exercise or attempted or purported exercise of, or the failure to exercise, any of their respective powers, unless such loss or damage is caused by its or his negligence, wilful default, fraud or breach of obligations under this Deed. The provisions of this Clause 14.1 shall be applicable also to any delegate, agent or sub-delegate of the Bank as is mentioned in Clause 14.3.

- 14.2. Without prejudice to Clause 14.1, entry into possession of the Charged Property shall not render the Bank or the Receiver liable to account as mortgagee in possession or to be liable for any loss on realisation or for any default or omission for which a mortgagee in possession might be liable; and if and whenever the Bank or the Receiver enters into possession of the Charged Property, it shall be entitled at any time to go out of such possession.
- 14.3. The Bank may, in the execution of all or any of the trusts, powers authorities and discretions vested in it by this Deed act by responsible officers or a responsible officer for the time being of the Bank. The Bank may also whenever it thinks expedient whether by power of attorney or otherwise, for a period not exceeding 12 months, delegate to any person or persons all or any of the trusts, rights, powers, duties, authorities and discretions vested in it by this Deed or appoint any agent in respect thereof. Any such delegation or appointment may be made upon such terms and conditions and subject to such regulations (including power to sub-delegate) as the Bank may think fit. The Bank shall give prompt notice to the Counterparty of the appointment of any delegate or agent as aforesaid and shall procure that any delegate shall also give prompt notice of the appointment of any sub-delegate to the Counterparty.
- 14.4. The Bank shall not, and no director, officer or employee of the Bank shall, be in any way precluded from making any contracts or entering into any transactions in the ordinary course of business with the Borrower.
- 14.5. The powers conferred by this Deed upon the Bank shall be in addition to any powers which from time to time be vested in it by general law.

15. Further Assurances

- 15.1. The Counterparty further covenants with the Bank and every Receiver from time to time upon written demand to execute, at its own cost, any document or do any act or thing which (a) the Bank may reasonably specify (subject to clause 3.5) with a view to perfecting any charge or security created or intended to be created by this Deed, or as may be necessary or reasonable to give full effect to the arrangements contemplated by this Deed or (b) the Bank or Receiver may reasonably specify with a view to facilitating the exercise, or the proposed exercise, of any of their respective powers.
- 15.2. The Counterparty hereby by way of security for the performance of its obligations under this Deed of Charge irrevocably appoints the Bank to be the attorney of the Counterparty with effect on and from the Enforcement Date to do any acts, matters or things which the Bank considers in each case necessary or desirable for the protection or preservation of the Bank's interest in the Mortgages forming part of the Mortgage Pool and their Related Security or which ought to be done under the provisions of this Deed of Charge and in its name or otherwise and on its behalf and as its act and deed to sign, seal, execute, deliver, perfect and do all deeds, instruments, acts and things which the Counterparty may or ought to do under the covenants and provisions contained in this Deed of Charge and generally in its name and on its behalf to exercise all or any of the powers, authorities and discretions conferred by or pursuant to this Deed of Charge or by any statute or common law on the Bank or any Receiver or which may be required or which the Bank shall deem fit for carrying any sale, lease, charge, mortgage or dealing by the Bank or by any Receiver into effect or for giving to the Bank or any Receiver the full benefit of this Deed of Charge and generally to use the name of the Counterparty in the exercise of all or any of the powers, authorities or discretions conferred on the Bank or any Receiver and the Counterparty hereby ratifies and confirms and agrees to ratify and confirm whatsoever any such attorney shall do or purport to do by virtue of this Clause 15.2 and all money properly expended by any such attorney shall be deemed to be expenses incurred by the Bank hereunder.

16. Other Security, etc.

- 16.1. This security is in addition to, and shall neither be merged in, nor in any way exclude or prejudice, any other Encumbrance, right of recourse or other right whatsoever which the Bank may now or at any time hereafter hold or have (or would apart from this security hold or have) as regards the Counterparty or any other person in respect of the Secured Obligations.
- 16.2. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Conveyancing Act, the Bank reserves the right to consolidate mortgage securities without restriction.
- 16.3. The Counterparty shall not take any action under Section 94 of the Conveyancing Act in respect of the Charged Property, this Deed of Charge or any monies, obligations or liabilities hereby covenanted to be paid or discharged.
- 16.4. The powers which this Deed confers on the Bank and the Receiver are cumulative, without prejudice to their respective powers under the general law, and may be exercised as often as the Bank or the Receiver thinks appropriate. The Bank or the Receiver may, in connection with the exercise of their powers, join or concur with any person in any transaction, scheme or arrangement whatsoever; and the Counterparty acknowledges that the respective powers of the Bank and the Receiver shall in no circumstances whatsoever be suspended, waived or otherwise prejudiced by anything other than an express waiver or variation in writing.
- 16.5. No failure or delay by any party hereto in exercising any right, power, remedy or privilege under this Deed or available at law shall impair such right, power, remedy or privilege or operate as a waiver thereto. The single or partial exercise of any right, power or remedy under this Deed or at law shall not preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power, remedy or privilege under this Deed or at law. The rights, powers, remedies and privileges provided in this Deed are cumulative and not exclusive of any rights and remedies provided by law.

17. Modification, Invalidity and Transfer

- 17.1. No amendment, modification or variation of this Deed shall be effective unless it is in writing and executed by or on behalf of each of the parties hereto.
- 17.2. If any of the provisions of this Deed becomes invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect under any law, the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions therein shall not in any way be affected or impaired.
- 17.3. The Bank may transfer and assign this Deed and all its rights and interest herein together with any or all of the Mortgage-Backed Promissory Notes to any other Participating NCB and to any such other body corporate as the Bank may from time to time approve in writing and upon such terms and conditions, as it may think fit.

18. Safe Custody of Documents

- 18.1. The Bank hereby undertakes with the Counterparty for the safe custody of such documents of title relating to the Charged Property of which it retains possession or control.
- 18.2. The parties agree that in the event of the loss or destruction of, or injury to, the documents of title relating to the Charged Property, the Bank shall have no liability to the Counterparty:
 - (a) if the loss, destruction or injury occurred:
 - (i) prior to the actual receipt of the documents of title in question by the Bank from the Counterparty or the Counterparty's solicitor, or
 - (ii) after the documents of title in question have been given by the Bank to some other person at the written request of the Counterparty and before the documents have been received back by the Bank,
 - (b) for any damage suffered by the Counterparty as a result of the loss or destruction of, or injury to, the documents of title in question where such damages:
 - (i) do not directly and naturally result from that loss, destruction or injury, or
 - (ii) relate to loss of profit or expected profit from the Counterparty's business or from the development of the Charged Property.
- 18.3. This Clause 18 shall be regarded as an undertaking for safe custody of documents of title given under Section 84 of the Conveyancing Act.

19. Avoidance of Payments

No assurance, security or payment which may be avoided or adjusted under any applicable law, and no release, settlement or discharge given or made by the Bank or any Receiver on the faith of any such assurance, security or payment, shall prejudice or affect the right of the Bank or any Receiver to recover from the Counterparty (including any moneys which it may be compelled by due process of law to refund pursuant to the provisions of any law relating to liquidation, bankruptcy, insolvency or creditors' rights generally and any costs payable by it to or otherwise incurred in connection with such process) or to enforce the security created by or pursuant to this Deed of Charge to the full extent of the Secured Obligations.

20. Governing Law and Jurisdiction

- 20.1. This Deed of Charge, and all non-contractual disputes arising from or connected with this Deed of Charge, shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of Ireland.

Material to be Contained in Legal Opinion

1. Basis of Opinion

For the purpose of this Opinion, we have examined the following:

- (a) Copies of the following documents (the "Transaction Documents") namely:
 - (i) a Framework Agreement dated today made between the Counterparty and the Bank;
 - (ii) a Deed of Charge dated today made between the Counterparty and the Bank;
 - (iii) a standard form of Mortgage-Backed Promissory Note (scheduled to the Framework Agreement) which it is intended would be issued from time to time by the Counterparty to the Bank.
- (b) A copy of the Counterparty's standard home loan facility letter and mortgage (the "Standard Documentation").

[In rendering the opinions set out in paragraph 3 below we have had regard to the opinion of Michael Collins SC dated 22 February 1999.]

2. Assumptions

We have assumed for the purposes of this Opinion (without any responsibility on our part if any assumption proves to have been untrue or incorrect since we have not independently verified any assumption):

Data Protection Act 1988 and Duty of Confidentiality

That prior to crystallisation or enforcement of the Deed of Charge there will in accordance with clause 4 of the Framework Agreement be no disclosure of personal data (within the meaning of the Data Protection Act 1988) or of confidential information.

3. Opinion

On the basis described in Section 1 above, under the assumptions set out in Section 2 above, we are of the opinion as follows:

Authorisations and Consents

- (a) The execution and delivery by the Company of the Transaction Documents which have to date been executed and the performance by the Counterparty of its obligations under those Transaction Documents does not require on the part of the Counterparty any consent, licence, approval or authorisation of any governmental or regulatory body or official of Ireland.

- (b) The creation of the Deed of Charge constitutes a transfer of the benefit of the Mortgages the subject of the Deed of Charge and the crystallisation and/or enforcement of the Deed of Charge constitutes a transfer of the Mortgages the subject of the Deed of Charge and/or a transfer of the benefit of such Mortgages.
- (c) The Standard Documentation of the Counterparty authorises the Counterparty to enter into and perform the Finance Documents since it authorises the Company
 - (i) to grant the Deed of Charge in that it contains a consent from the Mortgage Borrower to the transfer of the benefit of or the creation of a charge over the Mortgage, and
 - (ii) for the purpose of or in connection with any proposed transfer of the benefit of a Mortgage, to disclose such information, including personal data, as the transferee may reasonably require.

Based on the foregoing no further consents of the Mortgage Borrower are required in this connection.

IN WITNESS whereof the parties hereto have executed this Agreement the day and year first above written.
