Title: Visiting Scholars

I would highly recommend people to apply for this Visiting Scholar programme because this is the great opportunity if you are a Central banker, it's a great opportunity to learn from each other, to see the complementarities in terms of policymaking and research.

If you are an academic researcher, this is a great chance to learn about the Central Bank data, and this is a gold mine also.

Almost a dream for academic researchers, so I would strongly recommend to apply to this programme and also what I can say is Dublin is really a very lovely city.

It's a city full of life. I really enjoy every moment of my stay in Dublin.
