

External Reports Received

The Protected Disclosures Act 2014 (The Act) requires public bodies to prepare and publish a report each year regarding protected disclosures (Reports) received and managed during the previous calendar year.

The requirements arising under the Protected Disclosures Act 2014 were amended by the Protected Disclosures (Amendment) Act 2022 which commenced on 1 January 2023. The information that is required to be published under the amended legislation is provided below.

The Central Bank of Ireland (the Central Bank) is a prescribed person for the purpose of receiving protected disclosures under the Protected Disclosures Act 2014. In addition, the Central Bank is designated to receive protected disclosures under Part 5 of the Central Bank (Supervision and Enforcement) Act 2013. The Central Bank maintains external reporting channels and procedures for receiving and managing protected disclosures.

For the purpose of this report, the Central Bank is including protected disclosures received, under both the Protected Disclosures Act 2014 and the Central Bank (Supervision and Enforcement) Act 2013.
